

October

10

Tuesday

Webinar: Nurturing the Seed: Engaging and Supporting Indigenous Communities and Families (IMHP)

Many people play a role in supporting Indigenous families in their life journeys. Indigenous communities sometimes refer to these helpers as nurturing guides. This webinar will help develop your understanding of Indigenous worldviews and how to incorporate Indigenous child rearing practices into your relationship building approaches.

Time: 9:00am - 4:00pm Refreshments and Lunch provided

Location: CKCS - 495 Grand Ave W. Chatham (Board Room)

October

12

Thursday

Financial Literacy Series: The Basics of Budgeting

In response to a large number of requests for financial training as part of personal wellness, Chris June will be returning with parts 2 and 3 of his Financial Literacy Series. Spouses/partners welcome!

Oct 12: Effective Credit/Debt Management

Nov 2: Investment Basics (Saving for a Goal)

Time: 6:30 - 8:00pm Register for one or both sessions!

Location: CKCS - 495 Grand Ave W. Chatham (Board Room)

November

2

Thursday

November

25

Saturday

Bridges Out of Poverty

A comprehensive approach to understanding poverty. This workshop uses the lens of economic class and provides concrete tools and strategies for a community to alleviate poverty. Participants will examine a theory of change, and analyze poverty through the prism of hidden rules of class, resources, family structure, and language.

Seating is limited; please register asap! Breakfast and Lunch provided

Time: 8:00am - 3:00pm (Registration & Continental Breakfast: 8:00-9:00am)

Location: St. Clair College, 1001 Grand Ave West Chatham (Room 136)

Parking: No charge on Saturdays.

Please Note:

Fall Professional Education offerings are limited due to the OEYCFC transition; however, a session of the CCE's "Continuous Professional Learning, Phase II" will be scheduled for the new year and the How Does Learning Happen? Communities of Practice bi-monthly sessions will resume in Winter/Spring '18.